My dear Sir,

I am directed to return File No. 2297 dated 24-8-11. His Highness approves of the draft Proceedings relating to the celebration in Mysore of His Majesty the King's Coronation with a few modifications which I have noted in the draft. His Highness is not in favour of allowing District Officers to organize the collection of private subscriptions. His Highness also thinks that there is not much point in exhibiting portraits of His Majesty.

The notification may be altered so as to suit the revised draft Proceedings.

Yours sincerely,

SIR,

I am directed to forward herewith, for information and favour of such action as the Durbar may deem fit, a copy of a Resolution of the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 3264-3288, dated the 9th August 1911, containing instructions regarding local celebrations on the occasion of the Imperial Durbar at Delhi.

I have the honour to be.

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

P. B. Warburton

First Assistant Resident.

the vernacular by the senior civil officer present at midday on the 12th December 1911 at the headquarters of each local Government and Administration and of each District and Sub-division, and in the vernacular at the headquarters of each taluk and tahsil by the officer in administrative charge thereof. In villages it shall be read in the vernacular by the patwari or headman of the village to be selected in this behalf by the local authorities. The Governor-General in Council desires in this connexion to commend to the consideration of local Governments a suggestion which has been made to him that a portrait of His Majesty should be supplied to the reader of the proclamation in each village, who should be directed to exhibit it to the people assembled at the time.

4. At the headquarters of local Governments and of districts, and wherever else this can conveniently and suitably be arranged (possibly for instance at the headquarters of Sub-divisions, and, in some cases, of tahsils and taluks) the reading of the Proclamation should take place in a formal Durbar to be convened and arranged by the officer reading the Proclamation, and at this Durbar any honours that may have been conferred on residents of the locality by His Majesty the King-Emperor or His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General should be announced. The Governor-General in Council desires that the occasion should further be marked by the distribution at such Durbars of certificates of honour to be granted by local Governments and Administrations in the form annexed to this Resolution to Indian gentlemen of distinction. These certificates should, as on the three previous occasions when they have been granted, be distributed with discrimination, and be reserved for those who have actually rendered services meriting recognition by Government and capable of being distinctly specified in the body of the certificate.

5. At the time of the reading of the Proclamation a Royal Salute of 101 guns should be fired wherever this is practicable.

6. The Governor-General in Council directs that on the evening of the 12th December the District and Court Houses, Telegraph Offices and Post Offices, and, so far as this is practicable, all Government buildings throughout India shall be illuminated; and invites all local bodies to arrange for the illumination of their public buildings at the same time. His Excellency is confident that private persons will readily co-operate in this respect and will use every endeavour to illuminate their dwelling houses and business premises in a manner fitted to mark the great occasion.

7. It has already been stated that it is the desire of the Governor-General in Council—and he does not doubt that his wish will be shared by all classes of His Majesty's subjects in India—that celebrations on the occasion of Their Majesties' presence at the Imperial Durbar at Delhi should, as far as practicable, be held in every village in the Indian Empire. Besides the reading of the Proclamation and the exhibition of His Majesty's portrait referred to above, which may be regarded as of the nature of ceremonial, the Governor-General in Council trusts that the feeding of the poor, athletic sports, the display of fireworks and other like events, which formed so marked and well appreciated a feature of the local celebrations in honour of the Durbar at Delhi on the 1st January 1903, will take place on the present occasion on a still greater and more widespread scale. As on the occasion of the last Durbar the Governor-General in Council will look mainly to the loyal feeling, liberality, kindness and energy of local bodies and of the public, assisted by private individuals, to carry out his wishes in these respects, and he is confident that his hopes will not be disappointed, and that the celebrations will be of such a nature as to bring home as far as possible to every subject of His Majesty, young and old, rich and poor, throughout the country the great event of the first personal visit of a King-Emperor and of his Consort to His Indian Empire in order to announce to his Indian subjects the solemnity of His Coronation. To this end it is particularly desirable that entertainments for school children should be given an important place in the local celebrations but with regard to this matter the wishes of the Governor-General in Council have been separately made known.

RESOLUTION:

IN a Royal Proclamation dated the 22nd day of March 1911 His Majesty the King-Emperor declared his Royal intention to hold at Delhi on the twelfth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, an Imperial Durbar for the purpose of making known the solemnity of his Coronation. The Governor-General in Council is now pleased to issue the following orders for local celebrations of this unique, most solemn and auspicious event throughout the rest of His Majesty's Indian Dominions, except the cities of Bombay and Calcutta, on the above mentioned date. In accordance with the dictates of fitness and the wishes of the Governments of Bombay and Bengal, the celebrations at Bombay and Calcutta will be timed to coincide with the presence in those cities of Their Majesties.

2. The Governor-General in Council directs that Thursday, the 7th December 1911, the date appointed for the State Entry of Their Majesties into Delhi, and Tuesday, the 12th December 1911, the date appointed for the Imperial Durbar, shall be notified as public holidays throughout India under the Negotiable Instruments Act. In view of the fact that the Christmas holidays, from December the 23rd to the 1st January, will follow so closely upon the celebrations at Delhi, and that Their Majesties' presence in Bombay and Calcutta will be celebrated by other public holidays in those cities and throughout the Bombay Presidency and the Province of Bengal, the Governor-General in Council considers that the notification throughout India of any other days than the two specified as holidays under the Act would result in serious dislocation of public business and inconvenience to the mercantile community and to the large number of visitors to India who may be expected on the occasion. His Excellency is however pleased to direct that, subject to the condition that arrangements are made for the despatch of urgent business, all public offices under the Government of India, except those which must remain open for the proper transaction of commercial business, shall be closed upon the dates intervening between the State Entry of Their Majesties into Delhi and the celebration of the Imperial Durbar, namely, the 8th to the 11th December inclusive, and desires local Governments and Administrations to issue similar orders with regard to the offices under their control.

3. It is the wish of the Governor-General in Council that the local celebrations of the most auspicious occasion of Their Majesties' visit to India, should, save in the matter of the enjoyment of the holidays directed above, be concentrated upon the solemn date of the Imperial Durbar, the 12th December, and that some formal celebration of this unique occasion should, as far as practicable, be held in every village of the Indian Empire. With this object, it is directed that the Royal Proclamation, which will be read at the Imperial Durbar at Delhi, and which will be communicated to local Governments and Administrations in due season, shall be publicly read out not only at the headquarters of each local Government and Administration and at each district headquarters, but at the headquarters of every sub-division, tahsil and taluk, and, as far as practicable, at every village throughout India. The Proclamation shall be read in English and

Home Department.
Public.

Simla, the 9th August 1911.

SIR,

IN reply to your letter no. 713, dated the 25th May 1911, I am directed to say that the Governor General in Council approves the proposal of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to exhibit the picture of His Majesty the King-Emperor in every village in the United Provinces on the day of the Coronation Durbar at Delhi, through the patwari or headman of every such village. His Excellency in Council desires, however, that, in lieu of the proclamation suggested by His Honour, the patwari or headman should read to the villagers a vernacular translation of the Proclamation by His Majesty which will be read at Delhi and elsewhere. The text of this Proclamation will be forwarded to you in due course, for translation and distribution.

2. I am to add, with reference to paragraph 7 of the Home Department resolution nos. 3264-3288, dated the 9th August 1911, that there is no objection to local Governments and Administrations contributing, from Provincial funds, such sums as they consider necessary or desirable towards the cost of the local celebrations of the Coronation. Expenditure on illuminations of public buildings, referred to in paragraph 6 of the resolution, will be chargeable to Provincial or Imperial Revenues according as the buildings are Provincial or Imperial.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

A. EARLE,

Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 713, dated Naini Tal, the 25th May 1911.

From—THE HON'BLE MR. L. STUART, I.C.S., Secretary to Government, United Provinces, Educational Department,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

I am directed to refer the following point. The Lieutenant-Governor wishes to commemorate the presence of the King-Emperor at the Delhi Durbar by the circulation of his picture to every village in this province. The procedure proposed is that the picture of the King-Emperor shall be given to the patwari or headman of every such village who will show it to the villagers on the day of the Durbar. It is further proposed to have the annexed translation of the proclamation printed in the Persian and Deva Nagri characters on the back of each picture and to direct the patwari or headman who is entrusted with the duty of showing the picture to the villagers to read out the proclamation to them when assembled together at some place of common resort in the village. I am to ask if these proposals commend themselves to the Governor-General in Council.

PROCLAMATION.

Men, women and children of this village! The great King-Emperor of India has come with his Queen from his Kingdom of England to announce his succession to the throne. This day is held the Darbar at Delhi at which he deigns to show himself to his faithful people of India, and to proclaim himself ruler of this great land. He is the son of the well beloved King-Emperor Edward, and the grandson of the ever lamented Queen-Empress Victoria. This is not the first time that his love for the people of India has brought him to this country. When heir apparent he came six years ago to visit us. As all cannot see his beloved countenance, this picture is shown to you that you may know him though you have not seen him. God save the King-Emperor!
